A Message from the Committee

Talybont Village Show returns for another year after a very successful 2023 outing. Once again, we have planned a full range of activities for you to enjoy on the day. Some new ones and some old favourites. Entries for the show were up last year and hopefully we can continue that trend. Please study the information below and enter as many classes as you wish. The more entries, the better the show.

A big thank you goes out to all our volunteers without which the show just would not happen. If you feel you can offer some assistance on the day or with the overall organising please contact any of committee members listed on the inside back cover.

We are hoping for a sun filled day on August Bank Holiday Saturday 2024 and look forward to seeing you there.

Richard Abram (on behalf of the Talybont Show Committee).
